RE: Daeubler and Yavosky v Christman

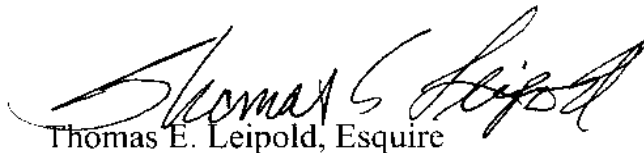

Dear Sheriff Roadarmel:

I represent the Plaintiffs/Judgment holder in the above-referred matter. I filed a Writ of Execution with your office on September 11, 2001. A levy was subsequently taken by your office on October 23, 2001 and a sale of a Jeep and snowplow was scheduled for December 13, 2001. The Defendant's husband subsequently filed an objection to the levy and you sustained the objection and cancelled the sale.

By this correspondence, I am requesting that further efforts be taken to execute upon the judgment in this matter. Should you require anything further from me in order to do so, please notify me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Re: Valerie A. Christman

Dear Mr. Roadarmel:

By way of introduction, my name is Michael Morrone and I am an attorney with the law offices of Campana, Campana & Lovecchio. Ms. Valerie Christman has recently been to my office regarding a Writ of Execution filed by Andrea J. Daeubler and David Yavosky. More specifically, she explained that a Sheriff had been to their property and listed a 1979 Jeep and plow for sale to secure the judgment currently entered against Ms. Christman. It is my understanding that her husband, Terry Christman, has already filled out a property claim in which she has explained that the pick-up and plow was purchased in his name alone for his sole benefit. Naturally, it is my understanding that because this is a judgment against Ms. Christman, the pick-up and plow will be exempt from satisfaction.

The purpose of this correspondence is to request a status as to the litigation itself. I would like to know if and when a sheriff's sale will occur and the hearing dates and times that may occur prior to the sale itself.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely

Michael C. Morrone
