PROPERTY CLAIM
OF CLAIMANT FCI CORPORATION

TO: The Sheriff of Columbia County

1. The property listed below and levied upon in this case is NOT the property of the defendants but is the property of the undersigned claimant, FCI CORPORATION. A list of the claimed property and the values thereof are:

Approximately Eleven Thousand forty-eight dollars and eight cents ($11,048.08) in United States Currency currently or formerly transferred into and/or from, and/or presently in, the M&T Bank account(s) of Defendant All American Lighting Corp., ABA Routing Number 022000046, including but not necessarily limited to account number 8890703740.

2. The claimant, FCI CORPORATION, obtained title to the property as follows:

FCI Corporation has always been the owner of the property, as the currency is merely property of FCI CORPORATION that was accidentally wired into the account because of a computing error; the property was never due and owing to the Defendants. Upon information and belief, both Defendants concur with this fact.

Dear Mr. Chamberlain:

Our firm represents FCI Corporation related to personal property that we believe your office has levied upon pursuant to a writ of execution issued in the above case. While we have received no notice of levy, our client knows through other means that some of the property levied upon is the property of our client FCI Corporation and not the property of the Defendants in the above execution. Accordingly, please accept for filing the enclosed written claim to property levied upon, set forth in substantially the form provided by Pa. R. Civ. P. 3258, and hereby filed pursuant to the rules governing "Sheriff's Interpleader," Pa R. Civ. P. 3201 et seq.

Pursuant to rule 3203, now that this claim is filed, please stay the execution against the claimed property and forthwith send a copy of this claim by ordinary mail to the plaintiff, the defendant, the garnishee bank, and all other execution creditors and claimants of the property, together with a notice substantially in the form provided by rule 3259.

Please send me a return fax or phone call regarding whatever fees, if any, you need us to send you to cover postage and any other appropriate costs associated with this process that we are required to pay. Please call me to discuss this at your earliest convenience.

RE: Clying Corp. v. All American Lighting Corp.

Dear Tim:

With respect to the above referenced matter, you need to do two things.

1. Pursuant to the last sentence of Rule 3123.1, you should send a notice to the Plaintiff and Garnishee that All American Lighting Corp. has filed a claim for exemption and include a copy of the December 5, 2003 letter from All American Lighting Corp.

2. Enclosed is a Petition which you should file with the Prothonotary and then hand deliver it to the Court Administrator and request that a hearing be scheduled within five (5) days as required by Rule 3123.1 (b). You should then conform multiple copies of the Order and Petition and send a copy of the Petition and Order scheduling the hearing to the Plaintiff, Defendant and Garnishee.

I will be out of the office on Friday afternoon but I would recommend that you do this on Friday if possible. If you have any questions, please call me Monday.

Very truly yours,

Harding & Hill LLP

RE: Execution 159-2003 E.D.

Dear Sir,

As per our previous conversation I have received your property claim, however a $12.00 fee must be paid before this claim can be filed. As soon as I am in receipt of this fee I will request a prompt court hearing.

Respectfully,
