Our File No. 26577

Dear Sheriff:

This matter is scheduled for Sheriff's Sale on Tuesday, March 25th at 10:00 a.m. I am pleased to advise that we have entered into a payment arrangement with the Defendant and he has in fact made his first monthly installment payment of $125.00. I am therefore asking that the Sale be continued generally and that the Defendant's assets remain under levy until such time as I feel he has established a regular payment history with our office.

As always, I thank you for your usual fine service.

Very truly yours,

KNUPP, KODAK & IMBLUM, P.C.

NOTICE

This paper is a Writ of Execution. It has been issued because there is a judgment against you. It may cause your property to be held or taken to pay the judgment. You may have legal rights to prevent your property from being taken. A Lawyer can advise you more specifically of these rights. If you wish to exercise your rights, you must act promptly.

The law provides that certain property cannot be taken. Such property is said to be exempt. There is a debtor's exemption of $300. There are other exemptions which may be applicable to you. Attached is a summary of some of the major exemptions. You may have other exemptions or other rights.

If you have an exemption, you should do the following promptly:

- (1) Fill out the attached claim form and demand for a prompt hearing.
- (2) Deliver the form or mail it to the Sheriff's Office at the address noted.

You should come to court ready to explain your exemption. If you do not come to court and prove your exemption, you may lose some of your property.
